About Westminster Abbey Enterprises Ltd

Westminster Abbey Enterprises Limited (WAEEL) is responsible for all retail activities at Westminster Abbey, and currently employs around 24 staff.

The main shop, situated at the exit to the Abbey (the Great West Door), sells a range of books and merchandise inspired by the life, history and architecture of the Abbey, and reflecting its location as a visitor attraction in central London. There is a further shop in the Cloisters (at the restaurant entrance/exit) selling a selective range of gifts, guides and souvenirs. We also sell online, at shop.westminster-abbey.org.

The net profits from retail sales revenue are usually gift-aided to the Abbey, and WAEEL's trading activities provide a valuable contribution to the income of the Abbey.

About Westminster Abbey

Westminster Abbey is a major centre for Christian worship, a leading venue for tourism and a treasured part of Britain's heritage. The Abbey has occupied a central place in the celebration of great events for the nation and remains one of the most beautiful architectural masterpieces in Britain.

A living Church, Westminster Abbey is the House of Kings, where the coronation of Kings and Queens has taken place since 1066, and where many of the Kings and Queens of England and the United Kingdom are buried. The shrine of St Edward the Confessor, King of England from 1042 to 1066, is at the heart of the Abbey Church. Also buried or commemorated here are many of the great men and women from almost every century of British history: statesmen and politicians, lawyers, warriors, clerics, writers, artists, musicians. Westminster Abbey is a Royal Peculiar, and the Dean and Chapter of Westminster are directly responsible to the Sovereign.

The Dean and Chapter of Westminster defines its Mission in these terms:

- To serve Almighty God by offering divine Worship daily and publicly;
- To serve the Sovereign by daily prayer and by a ready response to requests made by or on behalf of Her Majesty;
- To serve the nation by celebrating the distinctive witness of the Christian faith; by upholding the place of religious faith within national life; and by active engagement with Parliament, Whitehall and others in positions of public service;
- To serve all pilgrims and visitors to the Abbey, and to maintain a tradition of hospitality.

Our values

As one we serve each other, our visitors and the wider world in all we do with:

- Truthfulness
- Integrity
- Empathy
- Excellence

The Abbey attracts over one million paying visitors each year, from all around the world. A large number of people also attend services which take place seven days a week. Daily services are only part of the Abbey's work, for there are also many 'special' services and events throughout the year. Westminster Abbey currently employs around 300 staff in a variety of roles and an even larger number of volunteers.

The Abbey receives no regular income from the State, the Church of England or the Royal Family, and relies on monies raised from visitors to ensure that the building can be properly maintained and remain open as an amenity for all.
